Dear Michael McDonald,

We are now accepting applications for the Summer 2014 Institute on Political Journalism in Washington, DC. You will soon be receiving a brochure in the mail with further details, but in the meantime, please forward the announcement below to students who may be interested.

Students can earn up to 9 credits and are guaranteed an internship with a media outlet or communications firm. Please encourage students to apply for the early application deadline of December 9 to receive priority scholarship consideration and a 5% tuition discount.

I also invite you to nominate outstanding students by clicking on this link: www.DCinternships.org/Nominate. We award close to one million dollars in scholarship funding annually and preference is given to nominated students.

More information on our program may be found at www.DCinternships.org/IPJ. Thank you for your time and consideration. If you have any questions, I may be reached at admissions@tfas.org or 202.986.0384.

Sincerely,

Mary Stankus
Director, Recruitment and Admissions
U.S. Programs
The Fund for American Studies

****************************************************

LIVE. LEARN. INTERN.
Institute on Political Journalism
Washington, DC - Summer 2014
www.DCinternships.org/IPJ

Guaranteed Internships - Courses for Credit - Housing in DC
Early Deadline: December 9, 2013
Scholarship Funding Available

Spend a summer in Washington, DC making an investment in your future that will help set you apart after college. The comprehensive program sponsored by The Fund for American Studies includes a guaranteed journalism or communications internship placement, courses for transferable credit, and furnished housing in downtown Washington.

EXPERIENCE
We’ve been creating academic internship experiences for over 40 years and guarantee all participants an internship placement. Your options are endless – we work with many different newspapers, magazines, online publications, news services, TV and radio stations, as well as communications firms.

CONNECTIONS
Who you know does matter - especially when it comes to your future job search. Our programs are designed to allow students to make valuable professional connections and practice networking skills in a real-world setting. You can participate in a mentor program, as well as attend professional development seminars, roundtable discussions, and networking receptions with program alumni.

LOCATION
Washington, DC is the perfect place to explore a variety of career paths while enjoying a vibrant arts and culture scene. Take advantage of the free Smithsonian museums, many musical and theatre performances, as well as sports events. You can explore DC and meet fellow program participants through program-planned social activities including a guided tour of the monuments, a day trip to Mt. Vernon, canoeing on the Potomac River, and outing to the National Zoo.

COURSES FOR CREDIT
BACKSTAGE PASS
You will have a front row seat to a variety of exclusive briefings and uniquely DC events, allowing you to further explore the journalism career field, make important professional connections and have fun while doing so. You will have the chance to attend once-in-a-lifetime tours and hear from leaders within such institutions as the State Department, U.S. Congress, World Bank, National Press Club, and Newseum.

APPLICATION INFORMATION
Students will be accepted on a rolling basis until the final deadline of March 18, 2014. Applicants are encouraged to apply for the early deadline of December 9, 2013 in order to receive preference in admissions and scholarship consideration, as well as a 5% tuition discount.

For more information and to begin an online application, please visit www.DCinternships.org/IPJ. Questions may be directed to admissions@tfas.org or 202.986.0384.

1621 New Hampshire Ave., NW Washington, DC 20009 | This is a commercial message.

If you would prefer not to receive further messages from this sender, please Click Here and confirm your request.